

Data Subject Access Request – MIB Claims

Motor Insurers' Bureau (MIB) is here to compensate victims who have been involved in accidents with a driver who is not insured, or who leaves the scene. Our data is held 7 years from the date the claim was closed.

The easiest way to request the information MIB holds about you regarding a claim you have made with us, is to complete the following Data Subject Access Request.

Please note, this request will not return any information relating to your motor insurance policy, insurance claims made to your insurer, written-off vehicles or 'No Claims Discounts'.
