Right of Access to personal data - You have a right to request a copy of the personal data we hold about you.

Right to withdraw consent - You have the right to withdraw consent to processing of your personal data in relation to the Caller Contact information. This will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent.

Please Note: If you do withdraw consent for the processing of personal data in relation to storing contact information, MIB will still have a lawful basis for retaining data related to a Claim.

Right to Rectification - If you believe the data MIB holds about you is incorrect, you can contact MIB to request for any incomplete or inaccurate data that MIB holds about you to be corrected. However, MIB may need to verify the accuracy of the new data you provide to us.

Right to erasure - You have the right to request the deletion or removal of personal data MIB holds about you where there is no good reason for MIB continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask MIB to delete or remove your personal data where you have successfully exercised your right to object to processing, where MIB may have processed your information unlawfully or where MIB is required to erase your personal data to comply with law. Although MIB will consider every request for erasure on its merits, MIB may not always be able to comply with your request of erasure for specific legal reasons which will be notified to you, if applicable, at the time of your request.

Right to Object to processing - You have a right to object to the processing of your personal data. In some cases, MIB may demonstrate that it has compelling legitimate grounds to process your information which override your rights and freedoms.

Right to restrict processing of your personal data - You have a right to request MIB to suspend the processing of your personal data in the following situations:

- for the period it takes us to establish or rectify any inaccurate data about you;
- where MIB's use of the data is unlawful but you do not want MIB to erase it;
- prevent MIB from deleting your data at the end of the retention period in the event that you need it to establish, exercise or defend a legal claim;
- you have objected to MIB's use of your data but we need to verify whether MIB (or a third party) has overriding legitimate grounds to use it.

Right to request the transfer of your personal data to you or to a third party - MIB will provide to you, or a third party you have chosen, your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. Note that this right only applies to automated information which you initially provided consent for us to use or where we used the information to perform a contract with you.

Right to lodge a complaint
